SANCTUARY FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Ross Micheals and Norman Naftzger by the Blackford family.

Consider giving the flowers for Sunday worship to remember or honor loved ones or to celebrate an event, while expressing praise and thanksgiving to God. Please contact Linda Watson during business hours at 302-571-6719 or lwatson@ycst.com for available dates.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

Advent is a time of joyful anticipation of Christ coming into our lives. During the four weeks prior to Christmas, we prepare ourselves for the celebration of the birth of Christ – a time to remember the event that occurred 2,000 years ago changing history forever, and a time to welcome Christ anew into our lives. To mark the weeks, we light candles and honor the holy themes of the season.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please sign and pass the friendship folder, at the end of the pew, to the person next to you.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Can you imagine?

The wolf lives with the lamb; the leopard rests with the goat.

Can you imagine?

Knowledge of the Lord fills the land; righteousness reigns o’er all the earth.

The Lord’s light shines on a weary world — illuminating possibility, beckoning us to hope.

With peace in our hearts, let us worship God!

(Inspired by Isaiah 11:1-10)

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT CANDLE

Members of the Westminster Staff: Paul Fleckenstein, Suzie Hurlock, and Cathy Lang

One day, creation will be at peace.

Predator and prey will curl up together,
and hunter and hunted will feed side-by-side.

Children will play

without worries about weapons that wound the body,
or fear of words that scar the soul.

On that day, no one shall harm creatures or creation,
for all things will dwell in harmony.

This is what God’s reign of peace looks like.

It is a peace more enveloping than a world wrapped in snow,
more tranquil than a home that has put discord to rest,
more enduring than the hard-won accord that drapes a war zone in silence.

It is the peace of a world made right,
as justice rolls down like waters.

This is the peace God envisions,

the peace God is bringing to birth.

Today we light the first candle

as we wait in wonder for the Child of Peace.

*Passages in bold print are said by all. At the asterisk (*), please stand as you are able.*

ADVENT PRAYER

Emmanuel —
When you dwell among us,
steadfast love and faithfulness meet,
and justice and peace kiss each other.
As we wait for the Prince of Peace,
fill us with wisdom and understanding,
that we might follow paths that lead to peace
and walk in the light of the Lord. Amen.

TIME WITH OUR CHILDREN

Prophetic Spirituality 2019 Fall Sermon Series

Do the Scriptures reveal wisdom for not merely surviving life in the 21st century, but for sculpting a better world? It is essential for people of faith to spend time alone with God in prayer, to reflect on Scripture, and to attempt to discern the whispers of God deep in our soul. However, our interior life is immature if it does not propel us to work for the common good. We can resist the moral deterioration of today and throw ourselves into nudging the world toward God's vision by committing ourselves to following the path of Jesus and the prophets.

As followers of Jesus, we focus the bulk of our attention on his teachings and ministry. However, we stunt our faith if we have scant knowledge of the prophets who came before him, because Jesus stands on the shoulders of the Jewish prophets.

This fall, Dr. Jones is preaching a sermon series entitled "Prophetic Spirituality." To say that our faith is prophetic is to say that we are actively engaged in resisting evil, righting wrongs, and spreading love. To say that our faith is spiritual is to say that it is grounded in worship, prayer, and reflecting on God's message. Prophetic Spirituality intertwines interior work with outward action so that we can go deeper with God and live the life God calls us to live.

September 8	Introduction to Series	"Prophetic Spirituality"
September 15	Moses	"Let My People Go"
September 22	Amos	"Let Justice Roll Down Like Waters"
