Call to Worship

Blessed are those who trust in God and hunger to find meaning in their lives.

We yearn to deepen our faith in God and to discover God’s guidance.

Blessed are those who serve God with joy, touching the lives of others with a spirit of hope.

We intend to give our best to God, bearing fruit in all we say and do.

Song #37

“Let All Things Now Living”

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Gracious God, we give thanks for our community of faith where you assure us of your immeasurable love for us and provide opportunities to share your love with others.
Through words of Scripture and your Spirit whispering in our souls,
may we discover the work that is ours to do,
and summon the courage to carry it out.
Embolden us to resist evil, injustice, and violence;
inspire us to speak the truth, to show respect, and to live generously;
and energize us to spread joy, create beauty and foster hope.
In your holy name, we pray. Amen.

thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;

SERMON SERIES: WHY CHURCH?

The Golden Age of the church has passed. Or has it? The church will never regain its place of importance. Or will it? The Christian Church in the West has been on a downward slide for decades. Belief in God remains high among Americans, but church membership is on the decline. Is this the long, slow death of Christianity, or is it the long, slow death of the church as we know it today? Are we living in the final days of the church or could this be the beginning of the reformation of the church?

On seven Sundays this fall, Dr. Jones will lay out the reasons that the church is absolutely crucial to the state of the world.

October 8	The Church Plays a Critical Role in Society	November 19	Serving the World, Finding Our Soul
October 15	Where Community is Built	December 3	A Prophetic Voice
November 5	Can the Church Revive Our Sense of Enchantment with the World?	December 10	Where We Find Hope
November 12	Shaping Character

Previous sermons are available on the literature table and on the church website.

We are thankful for your presence and participation this morning. Westminster has two worship options each Sunday. Our other Sunday morning worship service is held at 9:00 a.m., and includes a choir, organ music and a brief Children's Message. Both services include prayers, singing, scripture and sermon.

Following worship, feel free to make a bouquet to brighten someone's day. Today's flowers are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Charma Welch and Martin Gravely by Barbara Gravely Welch and Chuck Welch.

Please remember in your prayers Cassandra Piovoso.

Children are welcome in worship. You will find yellow worship bags for all children at the chapel entrance.
