Gathering Song #375 “Shall We Gather at the River”

Welcome and Living Our Faith

Passing the Peace

Call to Worship

O Lord, you are our God.

We will exalt you; we will praise your name!

You have been a refuge to those in distress –

a shelter from the downpour, a shade from the heat.

O Lord, you are our God.

We will be glad and rejoice in your salvation! (Adapted from Isaiah 25)

Song #730 “I Sing a Song of the Saints of God”

Prayer of Thanksgiving

We give you thanks, O Lord, for all your saints and servants who have lived justly, loved mercy, and walked humbly with their God.

For all the high and holy ones,
who have done wonders
and been shining lights in the world, we give you thanks.

For all the meek and lowly ones,
who have earnestly sought you in darkness,
held fast to their faith in times of trial,
and accomplished good as they have had opportunity,
we give you thanks.

For those whom we have known and loved,
who, by their steadfast hope and generous care,
have reflected Christ to us.

we give you thanks.

As they have comforted and upheld our souls,
grant us grace to follow in their steps,
and at last to share with them in the inheritance of the saints in light. Amen.

Song #531

“Seed, Scattered and Sown”

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Eternal God...

The Lord’s Prayer

Words of Institution

Sharing the Bread and Cup

The Lord's Supper is open to all who trust in Christ.

When you approach communion servers, please take a piece of bread, the symbol of Christ's love for you, and dip it in the cup, representing the new life in Christ.

If you are unable to come forward, please tell a host so that you may be served.

For those who have wheat allergies, we provide gluten-free rice crackers with the communion bread.

After you receive communion, we invite you to light a candle in memory of the saints you hold in your heart today.

Prayer following Communion

God of glory, in this holy feast you have made us one with Christ and with that great multitude of the faithful – those who hunger and thirst no more and worship night and day in your temple.
Lead us in the paths of righteousness and guide us to the springs of the water of life, until we join the choir of the saints who forever sing your praise. Amen.

Celebrating Paul Fleckenstein's Career at Westminster

Sunday, November 17, 4:00 PM

Come to Westminster's sanctuary and be musically transported during this "quasi-farewell" concert (so named because Paul will still be around for another month and a half). This will be his final concert at Westminster as organ soloist prior to his retirement at the end of the year. The program will feature solo organ works by J. S. Bach, Horatio Parker, Joseph Jongen, and Edwin H. Lemare, as well as Josef Rheinberger's spectacular Organ Concerto in F-major, with 17-piece orchestra conducted by Dr. Paul Head.

Free admission (Offering received), Reception following

We are thankful for your presence and participation this morning. Westminster has two worship options each Sunday. Our other Sunday morning worship service is at 9:00 a.m., and includes a choir, organ music and a brief Children's Message. Both services include prayers, singing, scripture and sermon. At 10:10 a.m. we offer classes for all ages.

Following worship, feel free to make a bouquet to brighten someone's day. The flowers are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Fred Hurlock, Jr., along with the saints listed in the bulletin and those who have gone before them.

Please remember in your prayers Kendal Trickey.

Children are welcome. Yellow worship bags for children are located the chapel entrance.
