SANCTUARY FLOWERS

The flowers in the sanctuary are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Fred Hurlock, Jr., along with the saints listed in the bulletin and those who have gone before them.

Consider giving the flowers for Sunday worship to remember or honor loved ones or to celebrate an event, while expressing praise and thanksgiving to God. Please contact Linda Watson during business hours at 302-571-6719 or lwatson@ycst.com for available dates.

CONGREGATIONAL CARE AND PRAYER

Please remember in your prayers:

- ❖ Recently hospitalized: Kendal Trickey
- ❖ Those unable to attend worship on a regular basis by sending a card, saying a prayer, or visiting. This week we ask you to remember Jim Coker, Margie Lounsbury, and Reade Tompson at Cokesbury.
- ❖ Westminster's Prayer Team prays for the needs of our community of faith. You may submit a prayer request by leaving a confidential message on 302-654-5848, ext. 335; or filling out a prayer request card (in the pew pocket) and placing it in the offering plate; or sending an email to wpcprayerlist@gmail.com.

Afghanistan and Iraq often seems far away, and we may neglect to realize that Americans, as well as Afghans, Iraqis and members of coalition forces continue to die. As Christians, we are called to pray for the spreading of peace and justice and an end to violence. If someone in your family is serving in the military, please let us know, so that we may include that person on our prayer list. Contact Cathy Lang: 302-654-5214 ext. 129, or cathylang@wpc.org.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

On All Saints' Sunday the church celebrates the witness of the people who have gone before us. Originally, it was an occasion for the church to commemorate those martyred for their witness to Christ. It eventually came to include glad remembrance of all God's faithful people who have died. In the New Testament, the word saint is used to refer to any follower of Christ. The Greek word for saint literally means "one being made holy." Thus, a follower of God is one who is being transformed. Today, we celebrate All Saints' Sunday by giving thanks for those who loved us and those whom we loved and who now live eternally with God.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

“And I Saw a New Heaven”

Edgar Bainton

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: For the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; And there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things are passed away.

Today's Educational Offerings for Adults

Retirement & Beyond: Strategies and Advance Planning

Classroom 5

Presenter: Richard J. Thomas, CFP®

Retirement today involves many considerations and challenges. A generation ago, the concept of retirement was simpler; most people assumed they'd stop working around age 65, without giving much thought to what they'd do next. Today, retirement is less about retiring from work and more about transitioning to a new phase of life. This requires not just traditional financial planning and "crunching numbers," but perhaps, more importantly, discerning one's future to envision what retirement may look like. The best result – and least stress – is achieved when this process is begun well in advance of retirement. This segment will provide information benefiting anyone – those just starting out, in mid-career, approaching retirement or currently retired. Topics to be covered will include Social Security benefit strategies, investment risk tolerance, retirement planning options, estate planning, and eldercare planning.

Peace and Justice: Human Miracle/Human Need

Classroom 6

Presenter: Dave McBride

The reconciliation of science and spirituality is an important goal for modern theology. This class discusses the human needs that religion characteristically addresses but that are not being met in the secular world. These needs will be met, and the only question is whether they will be met in a constructive or a destructive manner. One of those needs is the experience of the transcendent, the desire to be part of something bigger than each of us individually.

What's Not in the Bible

Classroom 3

Facilitator: Bob Cox

Did you know that there were more than four books written about Jesus after his death? Join Bob Cox to explore these other books and learn from other accounts about Jesus' life.

Celebrating Paul Fleckenstein's Career at Westminster

Sunday, November 17, 4:00 PM

Come to Westminster's sanctuary and be musically transported during this "quasi-farewell" concert (so named because Paul will still be around for another month and a half). This will be his final concert at Westminster as organ soloist prior to his retirement at the end of the year. The program will feature solo organ works by J. S. Bach, Horatio Parker, Joseph Jongen, and Edwin H. Lemare, as well as Josef Rheinberger's spectacular Organ Concerto in F-major, with 17-piece orchestra conducted by Dr. Paul Head.

Free admission (Offering received)

CEDEPCA: TRANSFORMING LIVES AND REALITIES IN GUATEMALA

Sunday, November 17
10:10 AM in Classroom 6

We are honored to welcome Judith Castañeda, executive director of the Protestant Center for Pastoral Studies in Central America (CEDEPCA), to Westminster for the first time. Judith will update us on the current political and socio-economic crises that continue to unfold in Guatemala and highlight how CEDEPCA is working on the front lines to address issues of poverty, immigration, violence against women, and climate change.

Judith will be joined by two other CEDEPCA colleagues: Delia Leal, Regional Coordinator of the Women's Ministry, and Nancy Carrera, Program Coordinator of the Intercultural Encounters Program. Please join us for this informative presentation.

Please note that this presentation will be recorded and broadcast live on Westminster's Facebook page.

Prophetic Spirituality 2019 Fall Sermon Series

Do the Scriptures reveal wisdom for not merely surviving life in the 21st century, but for sculpting a better world? It is essential for people of faith to spend time alone with God in prayer, to reflect on Scripture, and to attempt to discern the whispers of God deep in our soul. However, our interior life is immature if it does not propel us to work for the common good. We can resist the moral deterioration of today and throw ourselves into nudging the world toward God’s vision by committing ourselves to following the path of Jesus and the prophets.

As followers of Jesus, we focus the bulk of our attention on his teachings and ministry. However, we stunt our faith if we have scant knowledge of the prophets who came before him, because Jesus stands on the shoulders of the Jewish prophets.

This fall, Dr. Jones is preaching a sermon series entitled “Prophetic Spirituality.” To say that our faith is prophetic is to say that we are actively engaged in resisting evil, righting wrongs, and spreading love. To say that our faith is spiritual is to say that it is grounded in worship, prayer, and reflecting on God’s message. Prophetic Spirituality intertwines interior work with outward action so that we can go deeper with God and live the life God calls us to live.
