Call to Worship

Based on Psalm 105

Give thanks to the Lord; tell of God’s wonderful works.

Sing to the Lord. Sing praises to our God!

Call on God’s name; let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.

Sing to the Lord. Sing praises to our God!

God brings us to freedom. Let us respond with joy!

Sing to the Lord. Sing praises to our God!

Song #730

 “I Sing a Song of the Saints of God”

Litany of Praise

I will sing to the Lord, the exalted one, for God has done great things!

Almighty God,

Who gathered together primeval waters to reveal dry land,

Who drew back the waves so a captive people could walk free -

In your steadfast love you redeem us.

Through flood and sea, river and font,

you create your people and call your children into abundant life.

In the waters of baptism, we are united with the faithful of every generation.

We praise you, O God of our salvation!

Liberating God,
who led your people out of slavery in Egypt,
who still proclaims release to captives, and demands that the oppressed go free –

In your steadfast love, you redeem us.

In every age, you send ordinary saints,
freed from sin, transformed by grace,
to join your work of justice making.

We praise you, O God of our salvation!

Eternal God,
who sent Abraham and Sarah to bear your blessing to the world,
who guided our ancestors with pillars of cloud and flame –

In your steadfast love you redeem us.

In every age, you have traveled with your people,
sustaining our mothers in the wilderness,
beckoning our fathers with a still small voice.

As constant as the wind, as quiet as our breaths,
your love surrounds us still.

You are our God, and we will praise you –
the God of our parents: we will exalt you.

Please sign the blue friendship notebook and pass it to the person next to you.

Communion of the People

Invitation to the Lord's Table

According to the standards of our culture, this is not an elaborate feast.

It is not how the world teaches us to eat, drink and be merry.

Yet this meal is the ultimate celebration because at this table we receive food for our souls.

Let us feast on the food of heaven that unites us with God and one another.

The Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Eternal God...

Sanctus (Hymn #552)

Words of Institution

Sharing the Bread and Cup

The Lord's Supper is open to all who trust in Christ.

When you approach communion servers, please take a piece of bread, the symbol of Christ's love for you, and dip it in the cup, representing the new life in Christ.

If you are unable to come forward, please tell a host so that you may be served.

For those who have wheat allergies, we provide gluten-free rice crackers with the communion bread.

After you receive communion, we invite you to light a candle in memory of the saints you hold in your heart today. There is an abundance of candles, so please feel free to light more than one.

We are thankful for your presence and participation this morning. Westminster has two worship options each Sunday. Our Traditional Service, held in the Sanctuary at 9:00 a.m., includes a choir, organ music and a brief Children's Message. Our Alternative Service, Living Mosaics, is held in Rodney Chapel at 11:15 a.m. Both services include prayers, singing, scripture and sermon.

Following worship, feel free to make a bouquet to brighten someone's day. Today's flowers are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Arthur C. Butters by his wife, Anna.

Please remember in your prayers Fred Iobst and Julie Petrovick, who were recently hospitalized.

Children are welcome in worship. You will find yellow worship bags for all children at the chapel entrance.
