Welcome and Living Our Faith

Passing the Peace

Call to Worship

We come from north and south, from east and west.

God's people are called to the Table where simple grace nourishes us.

From down the street to across town,
from single households to apartment dwellers:

God's people are called to community,
where we live and serve one another.

From every class, every race, and every status;

God's people are called to witness to God's hope, and to work for peace in divisive times.

Song #637

“O Sing to the Lord”

(Brazil)

Opening Prayer

Mighty God, you create human beings in your image and call on us to respect what is sacred and holy.
We pray for people of faith throughout the world who respond to your call to share love with one another and to work for a world where there is justice for all.
Let us never be so sure of ourselves
that we close our minds to new possibilities,
but may we be ready to discover more truth,
so that we may be in harmony with your Spirit. Amen.

Sharing the Bread and Cup

The Lord's Supper is open to all who trust in Christ. When you approach a communion server, please take a piece of bread and dip it in the cup.

Today we join the global Christian community in celebrating World Communion Sunday. As we come to the table, we remember our sisters and brothers who are breaking bread together in churches around the world, and we celebrate our oneness in Christ. The six breads we use for communion today – challah, chapati, naan, pita, rice crackers, and tortillas – remind us of the many faces of the body of Christ.

Following worship, please join us in the Meeting Room for coffee, tea, and fellowship.

We are thankful for your presence and participation this morning. Westminster has two worship options each Sunday. Our other Sunday morning worship service is held at 9:00 a.m., and includes a choir, organ music and a brief Children's Message. Both services include prayers, singing, scripture and sermon.

Children are welcome in worship. You will find yellow worship bags for all children at the chapel entrance.
