Westminster Presbyterian Church extends an enthusiastic welcome, in Christ's name, to all who worship here or join us in fellowship. Our church family seeks to embody God's boundless love by embracing, liberating and empowering people – whoever they are and wherever they may be on their faith journeys – to realize the transforming power of Christ in our congregation, community and the world beyond.

SANCTUARY FLOWERS

The rosebud on the chancel this morning is in celebration of the birth of Jayden Bhumphat Jobe, born June 28, 2019, son of Eddie Jobe and Alis Naksiri and grandson of Brock and Barbara Jobe.

The flowers in the sanctuary today are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Arthur C. Butters by his wife, Anna.

Consider giving the flowers for Sunday worship to remember or honor loved ones or to celebrate an event, while expressing praise and thanksgiving to God. Please contact Linda Watson during business hours at 302-571-6719 or lwatson@ycst.com for available dates. The next available dates are July 28 and August 25.

CONGREGATIONAL CARE AND PRAYER

Please remember in your prayers:

- ❖ Recently hospitalized: Jamie Cartmell and William Francis.
- ❖ Those unable to attend worship on a regular basis by sending a card, saying a prayer, or visiting. This week we ask you to remember Grace and Jack Barrington at home, and Gordon Lewis and Caroline Sparks at Stonegates.
- ❖ Westminster's Prayer Team prays for the needs of our community of faith. You may submit a prayer request by leaving a confidential message on 302-654-5848, ext. 335; or filling out a prayer request card (in the pew pocket) and placing it in the offering plate; or sending an email to wpcprayerlist@gmail.com.

Afghanistan and Iraq often seems far away, and we may neglect to realize that Americans, as well as Afghans, Iraqis and members of coalition forces continue to die. As Christians, we are called to pray for the spreading of peace and justice and an end to violence. If someone in your family is serving in the military, please let us know, so that we may include that person on our prayer list. Contact Cathy Lang: 302-654-5214 ext. 129, or cathylang@wpc.org.

This week we pray for those suffering from Traumatic Stress Disorder, whose scars may be deep and long-lasting.

WORSHIP NOTES

We welcome Dr. James H. Laster to the organ (and piano) bench this morning. In addition to serving on the faculty of the Shenandoah Conservatory (Shenandoah University, Winchester VA) for 27 years, James boasts a varied career including composer, author, actor, and church musician. He and his wife Madlon have recently moved to Delaware to be near their son and grandchildren.

Paul Fleckenstein has been in California this week attending a convention of the American Guild of Organists and visiting with family.

Easy-to-use assisted listening devices may be found in the back of the sanctuary and the side entrance off the main hallway.

All children who leave the sanctuary after TIME WITH OUR CHILDREN must have a completed yellow security label on their backs. If you do not find a security label in the pew pocket, you can obtain one in the Preschool Suite. This policy is for your child's protection. Children will only be released to a parent or an adult pre-approved by the parent. Thank you for your help.

Worship Resources – You can obtain large print hymnals. Worship bags for children ages 3-6 include a children's bulletin designed for them. Children's bulletins for ages 7-12 are also available from the ushers.

Are you wearing a nametag? Whether you are a long-time member or new to our church family, wearing a nametag provides others the opportunity to meet you, greet you by name, and for you to become more familiar with others at church. You will find nametags and markers in baskets at all major entrances.

You can make a contribution to Westminster Presbyterian Church by visiting our website www.wpc.org and click the "Donate Now" button or scan the QR code on your smart phone.

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Holy God, source of all life,
you claim us in the waters of baptism
and call us to life with you.
Yet we are rebellious children.
We have turned away,
choosing safety and security
over the call to service
and the promise of abundant life.
By grace you have led us to freedom,
yet we remain enslaved by our fears and imprisoned by doubt.
Forgive us, we pray.
Turn back our uncertainties,
overwhelm our timidity,
and set us free to serve you with courage, passion, and faith.

Passages in bold print are said (or sung) by all. At the asterisk (), please stand as you are able.*

COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

*This is not just a Presbyterian table;
the Lord's Supper is open to all who trust in Christ.*

When you approach a communion station, please take a piece of bread, the symbol of Christ's love for you, and dip it in the cup, representing the new life in Christ.

If you are unable to come to a station, please tell an usher so that you may be served.

Those sitting in the balcony at 10:00 a.m. will be served in their pews.

For those who have wheat allergies, we provide gluten-free rice crackers with the communion bread.

PRAYER FOLLOWING COMMUNION

Holy God, we thank you for this feast of grace and life.
As we have been served, help us to serve our neighbors.
As we have been fed, help us to feed all who are hungry.
As we have been loved, help us to love the world –
because in Christ Jesus you have loved us. Amen.

Second Impressions: A Closer Look at Three Biblical Women

There are biblical figures whom we have come to know through Sunday school lessons and children’s musicals, myth and tradition, and – even – their representations in art and pop culture. But, when we delve deeper into Scripture, we realize that these characters’ reputations are not always faithful to the biblical text. In a three-week sermon series, the Rev. Sudie Niesen Thompson will be inviting us to take a closer look at three “misunderstood” women in the Old and New Testaments and to consider what their stories teach us about the life of faith.

- ❖ July 7 – Eve
- ❖ July 14 – Mary, the Mother of Jesus
- ❖ July 21 – Mary Magdalene

REMINDER! The church office is closed on Fridays in July and August, except on July 26 for Vacation Bible School.

LET'S TALK ABOUT IT – A Periodic Series

Sunday, July 14, 9:00 a.m.

Facilitated by Sue Linderman

In recent weeks the subject of 'reparations' has been in the news, especially with the revitalization of H.R. 40 - Commission to Study and Develop Reparation Proposals for African-Americans Act, currently being discussed in the U.S. House of Representatives. Our conversation on July 14th will focus on this topic, as we continue the journey of exploring our national history and our beliefs about race, with openness to differing opinions and respect for one another. All are welcome to join in this dialogue.
