Call to Worship

Faith is fragile in a world plagued by suffering and evil.

Hope is cautious in a world crucified by injustice.

Our world is but a shadow of the greatness for which God created it.

And yet we cling to the vision of scripture

that God intends for the world to become a realm of justice and peace.

Song #29 “O God, You Search Me”

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Eternal God, we confess that we often fail to become the people you call us to be.

We live more in apathy born of cynicism than in passion born of hope.

We are motivated more by private ambition than by social justice.

We dream more of privilege and benefits than of service and sacrifice.

Help us to peer deep within ourselves and recover the divine image within us. Amen.

We are thankful for your presence and participation this morning. Westminster has two worship options each Sunday. Our other Sunday morning worship service is at 9:00 a.m., and includes a choir, organ music and a brief Children's Message. Both services include prayers, singing, scripture and sermon. At 10:10 a.m. we offer classes for all ages.

Following worship, feel free to make a bouquet to brighten someone's day. The flowers are given to the glory of God and in loving memory of Matthew Hammond Mah (November 10, 1980 – May 8, 2016), the son of Marsha and Dennie Mah. "We are all made of stardust."

Please remember in your prayers Jeff Argus and Helen Kelley.

Children are welcome. Yellow worship bags for children are located the chapel entrance.

Prophetic Spirituality - 2019 Fall Sermon Series

Do the Scriptures reveal wisdom for not merely surviving life in the 21st century, but for sculpting a better world? It is essential for people of faith to spend time alone with God in prayer, to reflect on Scripture, and to attempt to discern the whispers of God deep in our soul. However, our interior life is immature if it does not propel us to work for the common good. We can resist the moral deterioration of today and throw ourselves into nudging the world toward God's vision by committing ourselves to following the path of Jesus and the prophets.

As followers of Jesus, we focus the bulk of our attention on his teachings and ministry. However, we stunt our faith if we have scant knowledge of the prophets who came before him, because Jesus stands on the shoulders of the Jewish prophets.

This fall, Dr. Jones is preaching a sermon series entitled "Prophetic Spirituality." To say that our faith is prophetic is to say that we are actively engaged in resisting evil, righting wrongs, and spreading love. To say that our faith is spiritual is to say that it is grounded in worship, prayer, and reflecting on God's message. Prophetic Spirituality intertwines interior work with outward action so that we can go deeper with God and live the life God calls us to live.
